Product Description

Acrylic Signage

Acrylic, as a new and advanced material, has different great uses in various fields. Among them, the unique high-quality and high-transparency beauty is particularly prominent, which is simple and generous to highlight various products.

Acrylic outdoor printing signages are widely used in foreign advertising signs, advertising towers, advertising boards, signs and other fields.

Safety, environmental protection and energy saving. Acrylic material can be completely recycled and reused. The used acrylic board is reprocessed and shaped as long as the process flow is well controlled, and it will not affect the effect of secondary use.

High light transmittance. The light transmittance of acrylic characters can reach 95%. It is crystal clear and overflowing with light. The light box made of acrylic material has good light transmission, pure color, rich color, beautiful and flat, and takes into account both day and night. Kind of effect.

Acrylic sheet and other organic solvents can not be stored in the same place, but also can not contact organic solvents. Keep the warehouse dry and well-ventilated, and from fire.

- 1.High quality and competitive price.
- 2.Fastest production and timely lead time.
- 3.Providing best service.

We go to different countries every year to participate in the exhibition especially Dubai, we have dealers in India, Dubai and other areas.
